

RESIDENCY AND FELLOWSHIP EDUCATION PROGRAM • FAST FACTS

Overview of Residency and Fellowship Programs

- 16 ACGME accredited residency programs
- 17 ACGME accredited fellowship programs
- 7 AOA accredited programs
- More than 650 physician educators teaching about 300 residents and fellows annually
- Multi-disciplinary educational programs
- Securing the legacy of quality through innovation in the learning environment

The Geisinger Clinic

- Committed to educating medical students and residents since 1915
- A clear and passionate mission: Heal. Teach. Discover. Serve.
- Temple University School of Medicine Clinical Campus
- Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine teaching alliance for more than a decade
- The largest Pennsylvania Accredited provider of CME, serving more than 30,000 learners annually

Technology

- Clinical Skills Lab used for hands-on training in emergency, bedside, and operative procedures (including endoscopy, laparoscopy, endovascular therapy and cardiac catheterization)
- A mature, fully-integrated electronic health record connecting 40 community practice sites and more than 700 primary and specialty physicians
- A dedicated patient web interface, MyGeisinger, allowing patients to check lab results, schedule appointments and access portions of their medical record
- Electronic health science library brings journals and references to your laptop
- Partnered with IBM to implement a first-of-its-kind, patient-centric healthcare model for the 21st century
- Nationally recognized for technology and innovation

Quality of Life

- Medical school campus in a rural environment
- Family-friendly atmosphere and location
- Safe neighborhoods, good schools, quiet streets
- Reasonable cost-of-living, affordable housing

The central and northeastern Pennsylvania regions offer:

- Outdoor activities – mountain biking, hiking, camping, fishing, boating, skiing, etc
- Several universities and colleges
- Minor league sports and major amateur sports
- Orchestral and choral music, drama and other cultural events
- Concerts and arena concert venues
- Cafes, coffee houses and ethnic restaurants
- Small towns, local festivals, antique and boutique shopping
- Short commutes to major metropolitan areas such as Philadelphia, New York City and Washington, DC